BUILDING DESIGNED BY:

Reusche + Reyna Atelier

Reusche + Reyna Atelier is a peruvian architecture firm focused in architectural design and project management. It has developed over 260.000m2 in projects, mainly in housing, industrial and commercial buildings with the committed vision of the client and the city environment.

The design proposal includes a conducted study about the possibilities of the land to project, in accelerated disposition of the space and volume distribution, taking care of functionality and economy so as the relation every building has with the environment around it. The special and innovative treatment that they give to their spaces by using diverse materials has accomplished to put them as a benchmark of peruvian architecture.
